

LIFE before and after DEATH

A Compilation of Bible facts

by R. Stanley

Death is certain.

It is sure.

No one can escape it.

God appointed it following man's sin.

Science cannot stop it.

Riches cannot avoid it.

Death divides life into two.

One is life on earth and the other life in eternity.

Life here is temporary,

but life hereafter is permanent.

Life before death is short,

but life after death is forever.

This material world is man's habitation before death.

After death he enters a spiritual world unseen today.

In this world good and evil stay together,

but in the world to come they are separated.

The place where good dwells is Heaven;

that where evil dwells is Hell.

God has His throne in Heaven;

Satan with all his evil forces will be thrown into Hell.

Both Heaven and Hell are real.

Heaven is a place of eternal bliss, but Hell of endless torment.

All who obey God are rewarded in Heaven;

but those who reject Him are judged and punished in Hell.

How can we enter Heaven?

Jesus said, "I am the Way!"

He also emphasized, "There is no other!"

No religion can "save" man.

Religions can only "teach" man.

But man needs a Saviour.

Jesus Christ is the Saviour of the World.

He came into the world to save sinners.

It is sin that bars man from entering Heaven.

The punishment for sin is eternal separation from God.

But God so loved mankind that He sent His only Son Jesus to sacrifice Him for sin.

*Jesus died on the Cross 2000 years ago.
He rose again on the third day.
His blood can wash away all sin.
But this is effective only to those who believe on Him.*

*What is sin?
It is all ungodly thoughts, words and deeds.
It is rebellion against God.
It is failure to love others as ourselves.
It is disobedience to God's commandments given in the Holy Bible.
But when a man comes to Christ in repentance and simple faith,
he is instantly forgiven.
He becomes a child of God.
He is "born again!"*

*Friend,
you can decide your eternal destiny today.
God loves you.
He does not desire that your soul perish in Hell.
He wants you enjoy life forever with Him in Heaven.
Jesus is coming again soon.
He is Saviour today; He would be Judge tomorrow.*

*Don't expect to repent at the eleventh hour;
you may die at ten thirty!
Say bye to your old and evil way of living right now and turn to Jesus.
No sin is too foul to be forgiven by Him.
Accept His free pardon.
Receive Him as your Saviour.
You will become a new person.
Jesus is the True Light.
He will shine on you.
Your life will be totally changed.*

*Jesus will give you power to overcome temptations.
Your life will be safe and secure.
Satan cannot snatch you from God's hand.
You can die with hope.
As you close your eyes here,
you will open them in Heaven in the literal presence of God.*

Accepting Christ makes all the difference.
